The Neatly Dressed Boy.

It's no small task to design exclusive combinations in boys' clothes; it requires continual study of the fashion plates, both American and European. It requires a designer who has his hand and eye trained to the particular requirements of boys' clothes; who knows just the right cloth patterns that will suit the boy's figure. One pattern looks well on a boy of 5 years but is entirely out of place on a boy of 12 years.

Such methods are continually in operation in connection with boys' clothes made for us: whether it's wash suits or cloth suits, you'll find the reflection of the designer who continually studies the requirements of the neatly dressed boy.

Wash Suits, 50c to $3.00. Cloth Suits in Vestee or Sailor Blouse, $2.50 to $6

There's a combination of style and durability in this boy's shoe, and many satisfied mothers have complimented us on their introduction into this city. All styles. All sizes.

PITTSTON

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittston, June 23 .- It was reported up officially here today that the Warnk Coal company would attempt to operate its culm washery at Duryea Monday morning. The washery, which uses the material at the old dump at the Hall-stead shaft of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, has been idle since a short time after the opening of the strike. Unsuccesszut efforts were made to resume work at the washery about four weeks ago. Ten non-union men, who have been employed in various Capacities at the Exeter colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal company at West Pittston, quit work Saturday. It is said the men chimed they were hired as deputies and not as firemen or laborers work twelve hours per day.
The "Cannon Ball" trolley company which has been preparing its roadbed for a line through this city for the past four weeks, notwithstanding it has not se-cured a franchise from the city, will tomorrow morning commence work on the abutments for a bridge, which will cross Rallroad street, alongside the Eric rallroad bridge. Work as laborers have been offered the striking miners.

A young Italian boy who resides on Tompkins street, while cleaning a shot-gun yesterday afternoon, had two fingers one of his hands blown off by the ac cidental discharge of a shell in the gun. The 17-year locust plague has reache this city, and large swarms have been destroying vegetable life in the vicinity of Cork Lane during the past week. While returning home from a trip to Pittston Saturday about noon, Martin Porcoran, of Browntown, dropped dead, as he walked along the street. He was 7 years of age, and death is thought to b due to heart failure. Deceased was the father of James B. Corcoran, of the firm with his sister and mother survive. Coro
